THOUGHTS FOR THE DAY.

The end of our street is a wonderful place.
There it is that the sun goes down,
To light with glory for a space
The distant skies beyond the town.
It is as if one's longing eyes
In eager imagery could trace
The road away to paradise—
The end of our street is a wonderful place.

The end of our street is far away—
And there it is that the dreamer sees
Sweet visions at the close of day
Between the long, dim lines of trees
It is as if beyond the lane
God in His glory showed His face,
And purified all things profane—
The end of our street is a wonderful place.

I think no garden's sweeter
Than its sweetest flower;
I think no life is kinder
Than its kindest hour.
But all the flowering sweetness
Lies not in one,
Nor all a lifetime's kindness
In the great thing done.

You can see happiness and bliss
If but you never hunt trouble without Finding it—C. L. Edson.

"Just being happy
Is a fine thing to do;
Looking on the bright side
Rather than the blue;
Sad or sunny musing
Is largely in the choosing.
And just being happy
Is brave work and true."

SERIES OF AFTERNOON PARTIES FOR WOMAN'S HOME.
A number of the ladies of East Hill have given up prize-giving at their card parties, using the money so spent for some pet charity and a series of gatherings of five hundred have been planned for the Woman's Home.

Mrs. T. E. Welles was hostess for the first of these given Thursday afternoon at her home on East Gadsden street and a number of congenial friends enjoyed her hospitality.

About the attractively furnished home a profusion of daisies were used, the scene cards also being decorated with this pretty flower. Refreshing fruit punch and an ice course were served by Miss Ruth Welles, the young daughter of the household, who is just home from the National Park Seminary in Maryland, and two of her high school friends, Miss Beth Walton and Miss Nell Yates.

There were five tables of five hundred, those enjoying the games being Mrs. Welles, Mrs. J. E. Taylor, Mrs. Edith Smith of Massachusetts, Mrs. Frank L. Mayes, Mrs. C. E. Driver, Miss Edith Lusk, Mrs. H. H. Boyer, Miss Lucile Boyer, Mrs. Harry Linton, Mrs. Frank Marston, Miss Florence Marston, Mrs. F. M. Williams, Miss Lillie Williams, Mrs. C. W. Upp, Mrs. C. M. Wilson, Jr., Mrs. Frank Welles, Mrs. Charles Born, Mrs. Elbert Clubb, Mrs. Ed. Gale Quinn, Mrs. Ernest Elliott, Mrs. E. E. Saunders and Mrs. W. H. Northup.

Mrs. Frank Marston will be the next hostess for the Woman's Home, entertaining Thursday, June 25.

HOUSE PARTY CHAPERONED BY MRS. MALCOLM YONGE.
A number of girls and probably fifteen men of the unmarried set will enjoy swimming and other sports of the season at a house party next week, going down Monday to occupy a cottage on the bayshore for several days. Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Yonge will act as chaperones and among those in the party will be Miss Edna Manning of Mobile, Miss Amelia Hill of Montgomery, Miss Ellen Pratt of Prattville, Alabama, Misses Alma, Marguerite and Edna Finch, Mr. Pat Eagan, Mr. Philip Yonge and a number of others.

SWIMMING PARTY AT FORT BARRACAS.
Tuesday evening a number of the dancing men have planned a swimming party at Fort Barracas and among the hosts for this informal pleasure will be Dr. M. E. Quinn and Mr. McIlvaine.

MISS SYLVIA KINNEY TO VISIT IN NEW YORK.

Miss Sylvia Kinney, an attractive college girl, who has been ill with typhoid fever at the Woman's college in Tallahassee, will be allowed to go out for the first time next Tuesday. Later she will go to visit her sister, Mrs. Wild in Sherburne, New York, and then come to Pensacola to be with her aunts, the Misses Tipin, for the remainder of the summer. Miss Madge Kinney is now in Jacksonville and will later take a summer course at Tallahassee, re-entering college next fall with Miss Sylvia Kinney and a cousin, Miss Beth Walton.

MISS BLOUNT AT HOME FROM NOTRE DAME.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Blount and Miss Miriam Blount have returned from Baltimore, where Mr. Blount delivered the baccalaureate at Notre Dame college. Miss Blount was a member of the graduating class.

COLLEGE GIRL RETURNS FROM PELHAM MANOR.

Miss Edna Turner Merritt has returned after attending a house party on Lake Michigan, joining the homecoming school girls. Mrs. Merritt graduated earlier in the month from Mrs. Hazen's school at Pelham Manor, New York.

CAMP WALTON

Camp Walton, Fla., June 13.—Mr. and Mrs. Percy Smith and family of DeFuniak arrived here last Sunday on the Captain Fritz to be the guests of their uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. L. I. Smith for some time.

Mr. W. A. Spivey went to Moultrie, Ga., last week to spend ten days with his wife and daughter at that place. Mrs. E. S. Buck and daughter, Mrs. Richardson were guests of Mrs. Hallmark and Mrs. Norman last Sunday evening.

Mr. G. H. Royce went north last week to spend the summer with Mr. and Mrs. D. N. Grey and daughters Vivian and Marie and little son are registered at Indianola Inn for a month. Mr. Grey is enjoying the sport of catching red fish.

Mr. and Mrs. Hallmark and family arrived last Tuesday on the Captain Fritz and are comfortably located in the pretty cottage "La Coda" recently purchased from Mr. E. S. Buck. They expect to spend their many friends of this place.

Mr. Crona and family of Pensacola came last Monday and are spending a few weeks in the Spivey cottage. Mr. Crona has just completed the beautiful new Catholic church at this place and will finish the new addition on "Indianola Inn" in about two weeks.

Guests are arriving here every day and taking rooms at the hotels to enjoy the bathing, fishing and crabbing. Gulfview has quite a few and those now registered at "Indianola Inn" are Mr. and Mrs. E. N. Grey and three children from Pensacola. Mr. Albie Riera of Pensacola, Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Robinson, Charlotte, N. C. and Mrs. H. A. Houghton, Carlock, Ill. Many more are expected to arrive from Montgomery about the 20th.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Norman and sons, Jeff and Dan, Mrs. Norman's father, Mr. Daniel Morning and Miss Tanner of Ensley, Ala., are spending the summer here, in their comfortable camp. They expect to erect a beautiful home here in the near future.

Miss Eva Hallmark, the charming daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Hallmark of Pensacola, entertained at an evening party last evening in honor of their guests, Misses Irene Merlin and Edna Reidel both of Pensacola. The evening was immensely enjoyed by all present. Many games were played, dancing being the chief amusement, after which delicious ice cream and cake were served. Those who participated in the enjoyment were Misses Vivian and Marie Grey, Lena Martin, Edna Reidel, Eva and Hilda Hallmark, Mrs. Tanner, Messrs. Blainey Brooks, Clifton Stokes, Jeff

SAMSON.

Samson, June 13.—Rev. Mathews, J. H. and T. E. Jones went on a fishing trip to Pea river Tuesday.

Mrs. Eddie Harris of Brantley arrived in the city Monday for the purpose of organizing an orchestra. Quite a number of young men and ladies have already enrolled.

J. J. Rivenbark was a business visitor to Geneva Monday.

J. W. Howell has returned from Union Springs where he went on business.

Malcolm Harper and bride have returned from their bridal tour and are at home to their friends on Main street.

G. S. Campbell of Mobile is transacting business here this week.

Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Parish accompanied by Mrs. M. A. Parish and children of Argyle, Fla., motored over to Cedar Springs Tuesday.

Miss Connie Belle Roles of Leverette was the guest of Miss Effie Jones on Sunday.

Prof. W. T. Tiller of Hartford is here on business today.

Miss Pearl Gresham of Jacksonville is in the city the guest of her sister, Mrs. Saville.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Mitchell of Arkansas are in the city guests of their parents. They have had the misfortune to lose their 2 year old baby since their arrival.

E. L. Jones is in Hartford today on business.

Sid Wilson died here last night after a few hours illness with acute indigestion. He was the only son of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Wilson. He was about nineteen years old and was very popular with the younger set. His remains were interred yesterday afternoon at Bellewood, the old home of the family.

The smallpox fright has about subsided. It has proved to be only a slight attack of chicken pox which has been blown for a year.

BEULAH.

Beulah, June 13.—The dry weather still continues, only relieved by one little shower, and that did not hardly lay the dust, and the most optimistic are beginning to lose their faith in the promise of seed time and harvest, for we must surely have rain soon and plenty of it or there will be no harvest.

W. A. Shelby was in the city on business Tuesday. He put in a bid to supply beef to the government at the navy yard. We hope he may be awarded the contract.

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Snowden were Pensacola visitors Wednesday of last week.

Some one set fire to the grass near here last week, and a good deal of damage to fences and the result. Arthur Spate had about one hundred rods of pasture fence burned. John

As an Eye Opener—brought to your bedside by an old "mammy"—what home in the South is there where delicious French Market Coffee has not been served?

For Breakfast—steaming hot, superbly invigorating French Market Coffee, black or with cream, milk or condensed milk—another cup? Certainly, drink all you like. It is always healthful as well as delicious.

For Luncheon—Its aroma calls you. Served hot, no other coffee tastes so well—and every luncheon tastes better—where famous French Market Coffee is served.

For Dinner—Of course "he" wants his coffee—the real, delicious after-dinner coffee (the real Cafe Noir).

Even at Midnight—Many refresh themselves with a cup of French Market Coffee for, like the coffee of Paris and Vienna, it's a favorite "Night Cap." Its balmy, aromatic deliciousness is so different from the ordinary coffees.

No home in this climate can afford to be without French Market Coffee—for the perfectly sealed tins keep its flavor—keep it fresh—and "just right" for use. Think what it means to the South—genuine French Market Coffee—fresh at your grocer's—for your table.

DIRECTIONS—We recommend that you make French Market Coffee in your usual way. If you find it too strong, reduce quantity until strength and flavor are satisfactory. French Market makes more cups of good coffee to the pound than other brands, thereby reducing your coffee bill.

THE BEST "EVERY-PURPOSE" COFFEE!

MORNING JOY—Like all extremely high-grade coffees, mild and velvety in flavor—a great favorite with the leading Southern Clubs.

MORITA—A combination of high-grade coffees, blended expressly for the highest class of hotel trade.

CHIEF—A superb blend of Pan-American Coffees—a great favorite in the best known Southern Restaurants, who do not care to risk the use of bulk coffees.
